Trou-dropping tradition continues

Don't be alarmed this Sunday when a fellow subway rider, or a car full of them, seems to be missing a crucial ingredient. It's just those adventurous enough to take part in Philadelphia's third annual No Pants Subway Ride. Then again, if you're a regular SEPTA subway rider, you've probably seen worse in your daily travels. {page 02}

Ticket needed; pants optional

Third annual pantsless subway ride takes place this Sunday Hundreds expected to drop their trousers and jump on SEPTA Joke started in New York City over a decade ago highlights the lighter side of public transit

RIKARD LARMA/METRO

One of the pantsless ride's organizers, Emily Prohorchuck, said the event is "relatively safe — I don't know about sanitary."

About 100 people will descend on the Market-Frankford line Sunday afternoon, bundled in winter gear, but missing one thing — pants.

It's local comedy group Urban Playground's third annual No Pants Subway Ride, a title that explains the premise. Inspired by New York City's Improv Everywhere, which started the event 11 years ago, the concept is part comedy, part performance.

"You can totally see the hilarity in the situation, but it definitely has some performance art in it because everyone plays their own little part," said this year's coordinator Emily Prohorchuck, taking the reins from founder Ari Melman. "It's nice to show people can band together for good things, not just destructive things."

Quoted

"You can totally see the hilarity in the situation, but it definitely has some performance art in it because everyone plays their own little part."

EMILY PROHORCHUCK, COORDINATOR

Participants are split into groups and e-mailed a catchphrase that serves as cue for them to strip. "It's so funny to see peoples' reactions," Prohorchuck said, recounting a story from last year in which she asked an older woman what stop they were approaching. When the woman inquired if she needed to exit, Prohorchuck replied with the catchphrase, "No, it's just hot in here."

Nearly an entire car of poker-faced riders nonchalantly dropped trou, causing the woman to turn beet red and run from the train in horror.

Aside from its humor, participants in the event, now held in 50-plus cities across the world, cite many reasons for riding pantsless — from the unity forged to a good time.

"It's fun for people to get together with their friends and do this crazy thing, rather than just going out to a movie or to a bar," said Improv Everywhere Producer Matt Adams.

Pantsless upset Officer Panton

Despite its seemingly scandalous nature, riding the subway in skivvies is legal. There have been no documented legal issues since 2006, when a New York City officer "freaked out" and arrested several people, Adams said.

The cases were thrown out in court and the group was left with another funny story — they were arrested by Officer Panton.

Participants have a police escort this year, but the jury's out on the "ick" factor. "That's why I didn't sit down on the seats," Prohorchuck said. "It's relatively safe — I don't know about sanitary."

Grenade forced mall evacuation

KING OF PRUSSIA. Shoppers and patrons at the King of Prussia Mall got a brief scare yesterday when the mall was partially evacuated after authorities found a grenade in a planter.

The object, which police described as the "hollowed out shell of a hand grenade," was ruled not explosive by Montgomery County bomb squad officials. Security found the device on the first floor and evacuated part of the mall for more than an hour.

Upper Merion police are still investigating the source of the object and why it was put there.

Philly near bottom of health list

PHILADELPHIA. The city is among the worst cities for men in the latest ranking of 100 American cities by Men's Health magazine.

An annual report, the list evaluates cities based on 35 categories, including exercise, employment, air quality and heart disease taken from federal data. Burlington, Vt., topped the list, while Memphis, Tenn., finished last. Philadelphia ranked No. 98.

The other cities in the bottom five were Burlington, Ala. (99); Detroit (97); and St. Louis (96). The other cities atop the list included Madison, Wisc. (2); Plano, Texas (3); San Jose, Calif. (4); and Boise, Ida. (5).

Men's Health is not the first national mag to zing Philadelphia for its overall living conditions. Earlier this year, the city was ranked most toxic by Forbes. There was also the three straight years of having the unenviable title of the city with the least attractive people by Travel + Leisure. METRO/SDL

After disaster in Pa., Rick refined his game

Santorum's strong Iowa showing completes a turnaround many believed impossible ◗ Observers say he learned from loss and worked hard in comeback

After suffering an ignoble 18-point loss to Bob Casey Jr. in his U.S. Senate reelection bid, many believed Santorum's political career was finished.

But the far right conservative who represented Pennsylvania in Congress for 14 years has already proven conventional wisdom wrong. Like Richard Nixon before him, Santorum rose from the ashes of defeat and practically tied Mitt Romney in the Iowa caucuses Tuesday.

With retail politics playing such an outsize role in the Iowa caucuses, Philadelphia political consultant Larry Ceisler is not surprised by Santorum's victory. "We in Pennsylvania, who have followed Rick's career, know he is a hard worker that does not compromise his beliefs."

Percent of the New Hampshire primary vote next Tuesday that Madonna believes would be a good number for Santorum to remain viable.

Quinnapiac College professor Terry Madonna, founder of the Keystone Poll, dismissed any similarities between 2006 and the current race for the GOP presidential nomination.

"In 2006, Santorum ran ... in a year when it was bad to be a Bush Republican," he said, adding that Santorum seems to have learned much in defeat.

"Santorum is more refined, mild-mannered," said Madonna. "During the 2006 race, he was more hyperbolic and outspoken."

LAURA GOLDMAN
letters@metro.us

The new Huckabee?

Most Pennsylvania political consultants doubt Santorum can win the nomination.

"He is the Mike Huckabee of 2012," said Neal Oxman, who steered Rendell to his first mayoral victory. "He was the last man standing, the guy brought in at the ninth inning. Tim Pawlenty or Mitch Daniels would have won if they had lasted as long."

Oxman also noted that Santorum has failed to get on the ballet in both Virginia and Tennessee. METRO

▶ President Barack Obama waves alongside Richard Cordray after speaking about the economy yesterday at Shaker Heights High School in Ohio.

Obama bypasses Senate to appoint Wall St. watchdog

President Barack Obama plans to bypass Congress and install Richard Cordray as head of the country's new consumer financial watchdog, escalating an election-year fight with Republicans who questioned the legality of the move.

The recess appointment, which Obama announced in a campaign-style rally at a high school gym in a Cleveland suburb, is being cheered by Democrats and liberal advocacy groups who want tougher oversight of Wall Street and other financial players.

Obama's appointment of Cordray yesterday is part of a broader White House strategy to portray Obama as an activist president confronted with a "do nothing" Congress that has stymied his economic agenda.

Last month, Republicans blocked a vote on Cordray.

"We know what would happen if Republicans in Congress were allowed to keep holding Richard's nomination hostage," Obama told a cheering crowd.

Obama's decision to appoint Cordray, a former Ohio attorney general who frequently took on big banks, without a Senate vote, is likely to face a legal challenge because Republicans contend the Senate is still technically in session.

"This is an extraordinary and entirely unprecedented power grab by President Obama," House Speaker John Boehner said in a statement.

EU moves closer to an Iran oil ban

Tension between Persian country, Western countries leads to new oil price spike More than $103 a barrel

▶ Iranian Foreign Minister Ali Akbar Salehi before a meeting in Tehran yesterday. The European Union and the United States tightened the sanctions noose around Iran.

European Union governments moved closer to halting oil purchases from Iran, stepping up the confrontation over the Islamic republic's nuclear program.

EU foreign ministers are aiming to announce harsher sanctions on Iran's energy and banking industries at their next meeting on Jan. 30 after Greece lifted its objections to an oil embargo.

"We want to tighten sanctions on Iran — the things that have been mentioned are the oil sector and the financial sector," EU spokesman Michael Mann said by telephone in Brussels yesterday.

Oil fluctuated near an eight-month high after the European Union said it's working to sanction oil imports from Iran and its banks and on concern that Europe's debt crisis will affect consumption market. Crude for February delivery rose 29 cents to settle at $103.25 a barrel on the New York Mercantile Exchange. BLOOMBERG

Iowa contest throws wrench in GOP race

Romney, Santorum come out on top in first test of election season Bachmann out, Perry sticks with it

The man to beat

The Iowa result boosted Romney's status as the person to beat in the nomination race, although the slim margin underscored his continuing in ability to secure the trust of conservative Republicans ahead of what is likely to be the most expensive presidential campaign in history.

Known as a moderate when he was governor of predominantly Democratic Massachusetts seven years ago, Romney had not been expected to do well in Iowa, a midwestern state where conservative Christian voters are a major influence on Republican politics.

The rough-and-tumble Republican race for the White House became even more entangled yesterday when Tea Party favorite Michele Bachmann quit and Texas Gov. Rick Perry decided to stay in after all.

Bachmann stepped down after a dismal sixth-place finish in the Iowa caucuses contest, which was decided by a difference of only eight votes out of the 122,000 cast.

Former Massachusetts Gov. Mitt Romney won Iowa by the tightest of margins over social conservative Rick Santorum, a former senator who had been all but ignored until his poll numbers began to rise a week ago.

Despite vowing on Tuesday night to stay the course in the fight to be the Republican nominee, Bachmann finally threw in the towel. "I have decided to stand aside," said Bachmann, a conservative congresswoman and one-time front-runner.

Throwing political pundits into confusion, Perry announced he is staying in the race for now, after saying he would go home to reassess his campaign because of a disappointing fifth-place finish. REUTERS

25% Romney and Santorum finished the Iowa contest, the first of the 2012 presidential campaign, with about 25 percent support each.

'Celebrity Apprentice' announces its new, crazy cast

Well, he might not be running for president — and he might not even have the clout to moderate a Republican debate — but that ol' blowhard Donald Trump certainly knows how to pick out a cast of cut-rate celebrities.

On yesterday's "Today" show, Trump unveiled the cast of the upcoming season of "Celebrity Apprentice." It includes Clay Aiken, race-car driver Marco Andretti, Adam Carolla, "Wayne's World" star Tia Carrere, "Incredible Hulk" star Lou Ferrigno, Debbie Gibson, Victoria Gotti, "Real Housewives of New Jersey" star Teresa Guidice, Arsenio Hall, comic Penn Jillette, comic Lisa Lampanelli, Aubrey O'Day, "American Chopper" star Paul Teutal, model Cheryl Tiegs, ex-Miss Universe Dayana Mendoza, Twisted Sister singer Dee Snider, "Star Trek" legend George Takei and model Patricia Velasquez.

Trump

First impression? I'm just happy to hear most of these people are still alive. And it's not all bad: At least these celebrities compete to earn $250,000 to give to the charity of their choice (which should be career training for most of them).

But as for the Donald? Well, it was reported earlier this year that he might pocket as much as $65 million for producing and appearing on the show. You can guess how much of that goes to charity.

So, really, who is the winner here again?

Timberlake off the market?

After quietly getting back together in 2011, Justin Timberlake and Jessica Biel have reportedly gotten engaged just as quietly. Sources tell Us Weekly that Timberlake popped the question on top of a mountain in Jackson, Wyo., during a snowboarding vacation. "Justin knows how much she loves snowboarding and the mountains, so it was the perfect place," the source says. The pair broke up briefly last year, and "when they reunited, they had a conversation about taking the next step," the source says.

Talking points

Could there be a Schwarzenegger reunion?

After reconnecting with estranged husband Arnold Schwarzenegger over the holidays, Maria Shriver is reportedly reconsidering her planned divorce from the former California governor, according to OK! Magazine. "She's definitely having second thoughts about going ahead with the divorce," says a source close to the family, who adds that Shriver's friends aren't too pleased with the latest development: "All her friends are up in arms that she's considering a reunion," the source says. "She's close friends with Oprah [Winfrey], who would never encourage her to go back to a man who fathered a child with the housekeeper."

Gosling and Mendes: Still hot

If there were any doubts that Ryan Gosling and Eva Mendes were getting serious, their recent behavior should put them to rest. While visiting New York, Gosling reportedly took Mendes to the movies along with his mother, according to People magazine. "They all hung out and went to the movies together," a source says. "Ryan and Eva seemed very happy." And they seemed even happier before arriving in New York, while still at the airport in Los Angeles: "They kept kissing and hugging while they waited to board their flight," says a source. "Eva looked gorgeous and kept smiling."

Don't blame Jenny Craig!

Nick Cannon was hospitalized this week in Colorado for kidney failure, wife Mariah Carey revealed on Twitter. "Please pray for Nick as he's fighting to recover from a mild kidney failure," Carey wrote in a post accompanied by a photo of the pair in a hospital bed. The singer noted that a visit to the hospital seems to be an annual tradition for the couple: "Last year it was me attached to the machines," she wrote, referring to the birth of their twins, "and Nick was there with me through it. Now here we are."

Beretta76 takes aim

- The fiery Philly quartet have a new EP in the works
- Catch a preview at their show this weekend

Camille Escobedo's artistic beginnings were decidedly prim and proper: She moved to Philadelphia from Arlington, Texas 17 years ago to study vocal performance at the University of the Arts. But around 2003, she started to write her own music, and what came out was quite unexpected: a rush of furious, pounding, old-school, sex-obsessed rock 'n' roll.

After she took the songs to local producer Pete Rydberg, Beretta76 — a quartet of pedal-to-the-floor rock, with Rydberg on guitar and Escobedo out front, belting into the mic — was born.

"I think I still feel more at home musically in jazz and classical singing, but there are just all of these rules in that world. With rock, I finally found some freedom," explains Escobedo, from her South Philly apartment. "It's like the songs are these animals that just come out of me. They start a certain way in my head, but with the band they grow up in really wild ways."

Beretta76 released its only official album, "Black Beauty," back in 2006. But its members recently recorded six new songs for a forthcoming EP, and promise to debut them live this weekend when the group will play a rare gig at Johnny Brenda's on Saturday night.

"I feel like the name of the game in Philly is not to overexpose yourself," says Escobedo. "You want to make sure that things always feel fresh at your show."

5 Flicks to see this weekend

1 'The Adventures of Tintin' The beloved Belgian comic-book character gets animated in 3-D by two of the most celebrated director/producers in Hollywood: Steven Spielberg and Peter Jackson.

PARAMOUNT PICTURES

▶ "The Adventures of Tintin" is a must-see 3-D experience.

2 'We Bought a Zoo' Cameron Crowe directs Matt Damon in this tearjerker based on a true story about a widower who buys a dilapidated zoo in order to give his kids a wholesome childhood.

3 'The Girl with the Dragon Tattoo' David Fincher adapts the book and Swedish movie for those of us who don't like reading subtitles. Rooney Mara, as Lisbeth Salander, has already been nominated for awards for her stellar performance opposite Daniel Craig.

4 'Sherlock Holmes: A Game of Shadows' Holmes (Robert Downey Jr.) and Watson (Jude Law) pick up where they left off — and this time, they're after dastardly Professor Moriarty (Jared Harris of "Mad Men") with Rachel McAdams and the original Lisbeth Salander from the Swedish "The Girl With the Dragon Tattoo" films, Noomi Rapace.

5 'Mission: Impossible — Ghost Protocol' Tom Cruise may be deep into his 40s, but that hasn't stopped the impeccably fit actor from performing most of his own stunts in the fourth installment of this series. With a bombing of the Kremlin incorrectly blamed on his team, Ethan Hunt (Cruise) and his colleagues are forced to go underground to prove their innocence. Shot partially in IMAX, this film's bound to be at the top of the list for any thrill-seeker. METRO someone?

Quoted

"Instead of sticking strictly to what you know you like, be open to someone new and different and give yourself a chance to discover if, in fact, you might find something attractive or appealing in a person you previously would never have given a chance." GREER

give you is to think outside the box. Drop your preconceived notions and go out there with a completely open mind. Everyone typically has their "type" — whether it is tall, short, brown or blond hair, conservative or free-spirited — and thus instantly screens out people who they think aren't it.

Instead of sticking strictly to what you know you like, be open to someone new and different and give yourself a chance to discover if, in fact, you might find something attractive or appealing in a person you previously would never have given a chance. You might even discover that you like a different "type" more. By increasing your options you will greatly increase your odds.

While doing that, look for and gravitate toward the positive energy — a nice smile, those who show they're interested by asking questions about you, considerate behavior — rather than focusing on appearance alone.

And at least as important, keep a smile on your face. That's a green light to starting up a conversation wherever you are — on the train, in a store, at a party. All it takes for chemistry to happen is for two people to simply click, which can begin with a few words. Take the initiative and ask questions. Show interest — and see if it is returned.

HEALTH & WELLNESS

Why is Tom's Wife Smiling?

And the simple trick he used to help him perform like a 20 year old! Without drugs, pumps, or embarrassing doctor visits.

By, Stefan Rothler; Freelance Health Writer;

If you're like Tom, you know how frustrating it is when you can't "Stand Up" for yourself. Especially in the bedroom! And even though your wife tells you "its okay"— she secretly wishes you weren't such "a softy". For your sake and hers.

Tom's Story:

Tom M. had a big problem. His love-life was "coming up short". And like a lot of men his age, he had a tough time "performing" in the bedroom.

But Tom's wife was kind. She reassured him with words like "it's no big deal"--- but it really was. So she urged him to get some help. He took her advice…

Tom searched the web for answers, and came up with nothing but scams. Everything he tried failed. He thought about asking his doctor about that well-known "little blue pill". But it was way too expensive (as much as $30.00 per tablet). Plus, it doesn't work for 32% of all men who try it. And according to its warning labels you could wind up deaf, blind, or even dead! It's just not worth the risk.

The Secret of the Adult Film Industry

And by age 60, you're left with a fraction of the HGH you used to have. The signs of aging become impossible to ignore... narrower shoulders and more weight around the middle... thinner skin that loses elasticity... creases and wrinkles... aching joints and brittle bones... all signs that your body is gradually breaking down.

Add to that, decreased desire and ability and a loss of muscle tone that leads to a dangerous loss of agility and balance. But none of this has to happen...

Secret of The Rich and Famous

As Tom continued his research, he came across something unusual. He read that male actors in the adult film industry use something called "Herbal Virility". Before filming, the actors would pop one of these tiny pills in their mouth--- so when the director yells "action"- there's always plenty of it!

It's been the secret of adult film producers for years! That's because instead of taking a full-hour for it to work, Herbal Virility starts giving you "solid, long-lasting results" almost immediately after you take it --- no waiting!

Tom was excited to try it. After all, Herbal Virility helped thousands of men get back their confidence in the bedroom. And since its all-natural Herbal Virility is a lot safer than drugs. There are no pumps to hassle with, no embarrassing doctor visits needed and it's surprisingly affordable. Plus, it's based on Nobel prize-winning research...

Here's How It Works:

In 1998, three scientists shared a Nobel Prize for discovering that the chemical compound nitric oxide (or NO) plays a vital role in widening your blood vessels so blood flows more freely... especially in the "intimate areas" of your body.

When you're young, nitric oxide flows abundantly through your body. Unfortunately, as you grow older, your NO production starts to diminish. As a result, so does your love life. That's why Herbal Virility is so important.

Just pop a Herbal Virility into your mouth. Its proprietary formulation has no bitter taste and dissolves quickly into your bloodstream.

Herbal Virility contains all 25 of the most potent natural male enhancement boosters on earth. It helps kick-start your body's natural ability to produce nitric oxide on its own. So you're ready for action when you want it --- and as often as you want it. You'll get a "big boost" of confidence in the bedroom. And your wife will be so excited she may wake up the neighbors!

Rave Reviews Coming in Everyday

Most men, who experience Herbal Virility's firm results, can't get enough of it. Here's what people are saying...

W. Pritchett II of Newport News, VA, tells us; "After I turned 52, I couldn't get it to work. I thought my fun was over. But now, thanks to Herbal Virility I can heat things up in the bedroom anytime I want to." Please send me another 6 month supply!"

Melissa M. of Key Largo, FL reports; "Herbal Virility saved our marriage! What a difference it made in my husband. He's like a new man! All I can say is WOW!".

Not Available in Stores

The demand for Herbal Virility has been overwhelming. And until now, there just wasn't enough of it to go around. That's why the makers of Herbal Virility are limiting its supply to newspaper and magazine readers only.

Herbal Virility is amazing. Men who try it can't seem to get enough. But to really understand why, you have to try it for yourself. That's why the makers of Herbal Virility asked us to "spread the word" by offering our readers a full-month supply, at a super-discounted, "readers only" price.

Try Herbal Virility Risk-Free...
Plus a 1 Year, Money-Back Guarantee

See for yourself. You have a whole year to decide. Here's our guarantee; "If Herbal Virility doesn't give you back your desire, your stamina --- and get you "interested" whenever you need it --- you won't have to pay a dime. You have a full year to make up your mind. Either you're absolutely thrilled with Herbal Virility… or you get back every red cent!

We played ball, now sitting out

Over the decades, workers have been told that in order for our companies to compete internationally, we have to contribute to their profitability. In our cooperation, we have lost cost-of-living adjustments, union membership, nonparticipatory health care and pensions, fair and consistent raises and other benefits. Now our "job creators" need more concessions; those at the top have become immensely enriched, and the average worker has fallen further behind.

GLENN HAYES, VIA E-MAIL

Numbers game: We got sold out

RE: "ANYONE BUT OBAMA IN 2012": Clever of letter-writer Joseph Dupont to decry the president's employment tax reduction and burden the middle class, stating that "47 percent of U.S. households pay no federal income tax!" without ascribing any responsibility to the 1 percent.

BASIL RODERICKS, VIA E-MAIL

According to the nonpartisan Tax Policy Center, the reasons for the 47 percent of households that don't pay taxes are deductions and poverty. If you really put the screws to those people, you might get a few million in taxes out of grandma and her grandson in college. Some of the deductions stem from the Bush tax cuts, which you probably blame Obama for. I wonder which direction your head spins when you hear that we will no longer be throwing roughly $7 billion per month at Iraq now that Obama held to the date that the Bush administration set for bringing the troops home.

SCOTT KEELEY, VIA E-MAIL

Am I the only registered Republican in America totally frustrated with the current slate of candidates? This is the best and the brightest we have to offer the country? Really? At this rate, Obama's 2012 campaign slogan should be "Is that all they've got?"

BRUCE A. BENNETT, VIA E-MAIL

Why is it such an issue that President Obama helps the 99 percent of the people that are suffering while the 1 percent is constantly still gaining? If those "1 percent" who have their big companies in other countries — so they can pay their employees a lesser salary and exercise child labor — were brought back to the United States to pay their corporate taxes and provide jobs for the unemployed Americans, than those Americans will be able to pay their share of federal taxes. Horoscope

♑ Capricorn Dec. 22-Jan. 19. Owing to your unique ability to revitalize endeavors that are gasping for life, associates might look to you to champion a lost cause.

♒ Aquarius Jan. 20-Feb. 19. Think twice before rejecting a social invitation that would involve mingling with a new group. Chances are you will meet some fun people who will give you a new lease on life.

♓ Pisces Feb. 20-March 20. Lady Luck is likely to take it upon herself to engineer two new, potentially profitable developments for you.

♉ Taurus April 20-May 20. There is a strong probability that you will see orchids in places where people espy only weeds. Because of this, you'll find great opportunities that most people will completely overlook.

♊ Gemini May 21-June 20. Certain ideas of yours that you feel quite good about could be more ingenious than even you thought. When you see the right opportunity come up, implement them immediately.

♋ Cancer June 21-July 22. What goes around comes around, and, fortunately, you may be rewarded for good deeds you've done in the past. Those whom you directly helped won't be the ones reciprocating.

♌ Leo July 23-Aug. 22. Even at the expense of temporarily shelving some of your usual duties, spend time on furthering a new interest. Your chances for success are good and copious rewards could be in the offing.

♍ Virgo Aug. 23-Sept. 22. An opportunity could come to you through a very unusual source. Be receptive to someone with a good track record in another field when he or she brings a new idea to you.

♐ Sagittarius Nov. 23-Dec. 21. Don't rush to a negative conclusion regarding an idea that your mate comes up with. After a bit of careful study on the subject, you might discover that you really like it.

NOT IN OWL HOUSE

Temple upsets No. 3 Duke 78-73 at Wells Fargo ◗ Hollis-Jefferson, Wyatt lead way as Owls defeat Blue Devils for first time since 1996

How long has it been since Temple ousted perennial powerhouse Duke?

Keep in mind that the arena no longer exists.

For the first time since Jan. 25, 1996 — when the Owls eked past the Blue Devils 59-58 at the now-defunct Spectrum — they did it again across the street last night at the raucous Wells Fargo Center.

Temple 78, Duke 73.

"I don't think it's hit me yet," said Temple guard Ramone Moore, who had nine points. "It's a great win."

The Owls had lost nine straight since that last victory in '96, including a 17-point defeat last season at Cameron Indoor Stadium.

It was a completely different scenario this time around.

Khalif Wyatt paced the Owls (10-3) with 22 points, one of five players in double figures. Consecutive three-pointers by Wyatt late in the game gave the Owls a 66-57 lead. And it got the sellout crowd of 20,420 — the third-largest college basketball crowd in the history of the Wells Fargo Center — behind Temple while drowning out the Duke supporters.

"My teammates trusted me," Wyatt said. "I just tried to come through for them."

Quoted

"It feels really great. Coach [Fran Dunphy] said to enjoy it and we will. Then he said, 'Get ready for Dayton.'"

KHALIF WYATT, TEMPLE GUARD

For the fourth straight year, Temple has knocked off a Top 10 team. Yet this one might be the most enjoyable, especially playing without center Micheal Eric and forward Scootie Randall.

Duke fell to 12-2 with its only loss coming against Ohio State. This Duke team is ultra-talented but young.

The Owls shot 56-percent from the field and played tough defense. It was that simple.

"It feels really great," Wyatt said. "It's an unbelievable feeling. Coach [Fran Dunphy] said to enjoy it and we will. Then he said, 'Get ready for Dayton.' We'll enjoy this now and come back to work for the next one."

Credit Card Debt?
ADVERTISEMENT
Solutions that can help you get out of debt.

Tom Hill
CGA STAFF WRITER

Every three minutes another person falls behind on credit card debt. It's no wonder, since every major credit card company has nearly doubled the minimum monthly payment on consumers' bills. Federal Regulators forced the change because of their concern about the growing mountain of consumer debt, which stands at $2.17 trillion. Many consumers can only pay the minimum payment, which can take up to 30 years to pay off. Now, relief is in sight for millions of Americans.

CreditGUARD of America, a non-profit licensed debt management service provider, is making a new program available to lower debt payments and become free of all credit card debt in only three to five years. Consumers need only $2,000 or more in total credit card debt and behind on any account, to cut their payment by 35% to 50%, and reduce or eliminate interest charges altogether.

Over 200,000 families, located throughout the U.S. have regained financial independence with CreditGUARD's licensed, bonded and insured service. CreditGUARD of America has received high marks in consumer surveys showing high consumer satisfaction and confidence. The CreditGUARD debt management program can actually turn a person's life around.

One such case is Sandra L. who proclaimed "CreditGUARD cut my monthly payment by $656 and saved me over $29,206.53 in interest. They saved my way of life and gave me back my piece of mind! Now I can see myself on my way to becoming debt free." or Jeffery C. who said "CreditGUARD of America helped me consolidate 3 of my credit cards into one affordable payment. They are now saving me nearly $200 a month. Now I will be debt free in 2 years or less"

Certified Credit Counselors at CreditGUARD of America provide Debt Relief Consultations at no charge, when you call 1-888-483-6410. Calculate your interest rate savings instantly online when you visit their website at: www.creditguard.org/np

Early-season adds can pay big dividends for the rest of the season:

1 Brandon Rush, SF, GSW — Dorell Wright is already on thin ice as the starter. Rush has more raw talent, he was just under-utilized in Indiana.

2 Marreese Speights, PF, MEM — Speights certainly has the offensive skills to excel while Zach Randolph (knee) is out. We'll see if his defense is strong enough to keep him on the floor.

3 Gary Neal, SG, SA — Manu Ginobili is out at least six weeks after undergoing surgery on his shooting hand. The Spurs now desperately need Neal's long-range shooting ability on the floor.

TARGETING THE 2011 TALENTS

Even at the NFL level, certain guys jump off the game tape as freaks. They are the playmakers, the difference-makers, the elite talents.

In fantasy, these are the players we need to take note of. Their coaches force-feed them the ball and when they get it, they do things that other mere mortals are incapable of.

Here are some guys that emerged as truly different players in 2011:

Julio at the schoolyard

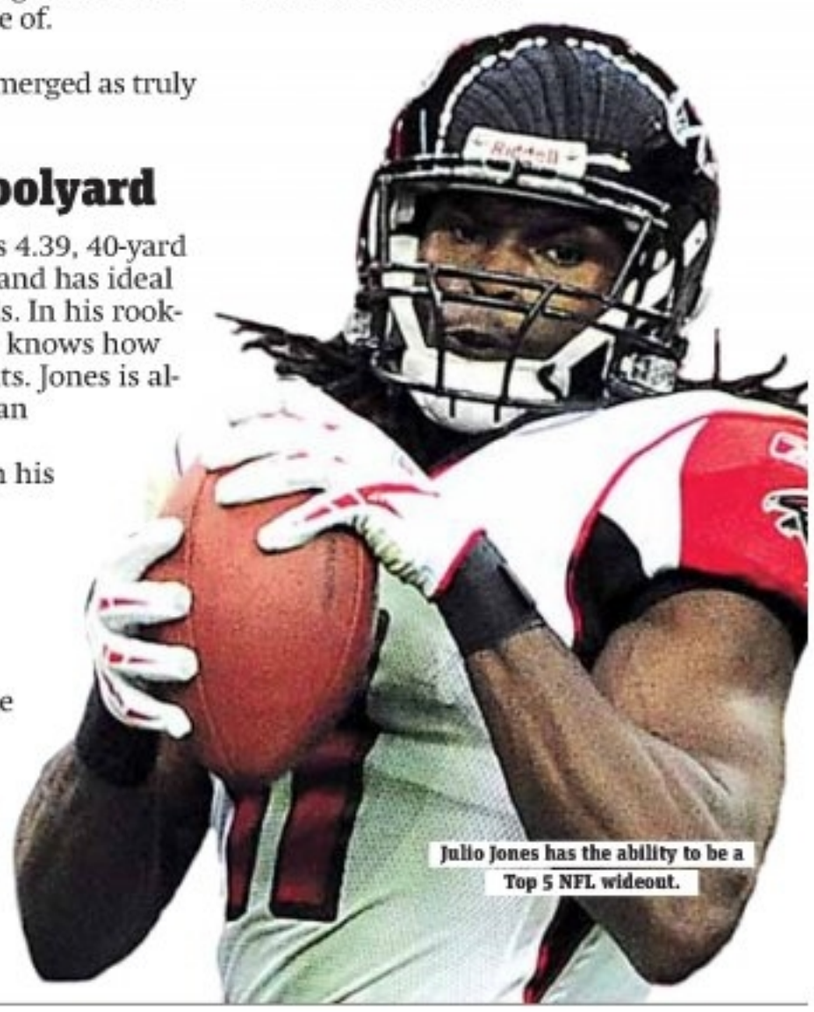
Julio Jones ran a ridiculous 4.39, 40-yard dash at the NFL combine and has ideal size at 6-foot-3/220 pounds. In his rookie year, he proved that he knows how to use those measurements. Jones is already a better receiver than teammate Roddy White, dominating defenses with his physicality.

Moore for Denarius

The ability to go deep at the NFL level is an art form. Denarius Moore showed that he's close to mastering it already. His ability to adjust on long balls and make extremely tough catches is something that can't be taught.

Making it rain

If it wasn't for Rob Gronkowski and Jimmy Graham, we'd be talking about Aaron Hernandez as the biggest freak at the tight end position. His skill set is so unique that the Patriots call reverses and bubble screens for him. That's because in the open field, Hernandez makes defenders miss like a wideout.



Julio Jones has the ability to be a Top 5 NFL wideout.

Speights traded to Memphis

Marreese Speights checked out of town a year ago. Yesterday, the Sixers made his departure official.

Speights, who fell into coach Doug Collins' doghouse at the beginning of last season, was traded to the Memphis Grizzlies as part of a three-team trade that netted the Sixers two second-round picks. The move clears a reported $1.7 million in cap space.

Speights' horrific basketball IQ and lack of commitment to defense kept him pinned to the bench this year despite the Sixers' thin frontcourt.

Celek has sports hernia repaired

GETTY IMAGES

▶ Celek

Brent Celek was playing this season while enduring some considerable pain.

The Eagles tight end underwent two successful surgeries Tuesday, as he looks to build on a big 2011. Celek had a procedure to repair a sports hernia, then another to fix a torn labrum in his left hip.

Celek finished this past season with 62 catches — second on the team behind Jeremy Maclin's 63 — for 811 yards and five touchdowns.

Flyers ready to welcome back pesky Blackhawks

It probably won't be a warm greeting as the Flyers welcome Chicago back to town tonight for the first time since losing Game 6 of the 2010 Stanley Cup Finals. That 4-3 overtime loss allowed the Blackhawks to celebrate on the Flyers' home ice.

"I remember the next day waking up and there was no meeting, no media scrum, no fans, nobody waiting for you anywhere and it was a very, very empty feeling," Danny Briere told reporters.

On TV today

Blackhawks at Flyers, 7 p.m. (CSN)

This year, Chicago leads the Western Conference with 52 points, which is tied for tops in the NHL with the Rangers.

The Flyers' 48 points rank seventh in the league and fourth in the East.

▶ Briere has 10 goals and 15 assists (25 points) this season.
